

CONTEMPORARY PHILANTHROPY AND SOCIAL RENEWAL
LEARNING FROM RESEARCH AND PRACTICE
A Symposium for Philanthropy Professionals, Researchers and Philanthropists

27th March 2013
The Great North Museum Newcastle upon Tyne

DRAFT PROGRAMME

Timetable	Session Outline	Speakers and Panellists
10.00 – 10.30	Registration	Refreshments and networking
10.30 – 11.00	Welcome Philanthropy and the prospects for social renewal – what the research tells us	Prof. Charles Harvey, CGAP and Newcastle University
11.00 – 12.00	Understanding the philanthropic journey – research findings followed by small group discussion and feedback	Prof. Mairi Maclean, CGAP and University of Exeter
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch	Buffet lunch and networking
13.00 – 14.00	Delivering a better future – leading professionals share their thoughts on how philanthropists and philanthropy professionals might better work together to identify and make the most of opportunities for social renewal	Maya Prabhu, Executive Director, Coultts Institute Rob Williamson, CEO, CFTWN
14.00 – 14.15	Short break	Refreshments and networking
14.15 – 15.30	Inspired giving – leading philanthropists discuss their own philanthropic journeys and what inspires them to engage with particular projects and causes	Chair: Derry Nugent, Head of Philanthropy Services, CFTWN Panellists: Fiona Crozier, Ian Gregg, Mark I'Anson, Lyn and Trevor Shears, Ash Winter
15.30 – 15.45	Learning from research and practice – summation and final discussion	Prof. Charles Harvey, CGAP and Newcastle University
15.45	Close	Taxis by arrangement